Summer, Passion
There we were holding hands
Sunrise, Sunset
Every moment we spent together
Tender, Comfort
You held me in your arms
Whispered, Softly
Spoke your words you promised me

You blinded me with your beauty
You left me wanting more
This never should have started
I will not ignore
How did it come to this
When did it all begin
Deceived by you
Betrayed by you
Never again

You can't tear my heart out anymore

No

I won't let you
Tear my heart out
Now that I have control
