Through Your eyes
I am made new
Through Your touch
I am made new
Through Your words
I am made new
Through Your blood
I am made new

So close yet so far away
To be like You is perfect
I fall short of Your glory
I'm basking in Your presence

The pieces will fall into place
And memories will fade away
Only time will tell of what I've become
I put my hope in You

Show me the way to Your heart so I may be free
Endless love surrounding me
Lift this burden that buries me

I surrender all
I put my faith in You
You are my everything

Don't go far this time
I will wait for You

Tear it out, tear it out
Rescue me
Tear it out, tear it out
Purify me
Tear it out, tear it out
Set me free
Tear it out, tear it out
I am free
