No one owns the universe
The universe owns none
Love's the only beauty that
Exists beneath the sun

Give me 'cause I don't know how
Give me and I'll learn, yeah
Feel it coming closer now
Feel the tables turn, yeah

All to do is far from done
No, you're not the only one
Revolution's yet to come

Tears will fall and men will die
Gap of evil's open wide
Kills the soul but not the mind

Darkness can't oppose the light
So we all shall see
Children knowing wrong from right
Truth will set them free

Plant the seeds and they will grow
Break the ancient walls, yeah
When it's time then you will know
You will watch them fall

All to do is far from done
No, you're not the only one
Revolution's yet to come

Tears will fall and men will die
Gap of evil's open wide
Kills the soul but not the mind

Let the season make them go
Let the season make them go
No one owns the universe, oh no

Let the season make them go
Let the season make them go

No one owns the universe, oh no

Let the season make them go
Let the season, you got to make the season
No one owns the universe, oh no

All to do is far from done
No, you're not the only one
Revolution's yet to come

Tears will fall and men will die
Gap of evil's open wide
Kills the soul but not the mind
