I wish that I could go back and right this wrong
And give the things I never gave you
I wish I had the strength to just hold on I wish you wanted me to save you

But I could never reach you, I never could explain
The life and love I tried to give you
And now it seems we did it all in vain
Now it seems that I won't live through

You don't know how the pain never ends
You don't know how my heart broke again and again, you don't know
Girl some day I hope you'll understand
Somehow and somewhere, will you meet me there?

Sitting on the outside trying to get back in A million reasons not to make it
Looking at the lovers we should have been Whispers in my heart un-faded

Close enough to touch and to hear your voice
I can't deny when you surround me
I know I've got to move on but I have no choice
I can't go back the way you found me

You don't know how the pain never ends!

Free fall let me inside your walls
Does it hurt or don't you feel a thing at all
And when will I ever learn, burn after burn
The sadest encore plays until there is no more
