Another hundred people just got off of the train
And came up through the ground While another hundred people just got off of the bus and are looking around At another hundred people who got off of the plane
And are looking at us
Who got off of the train and the plane and the bus
Maybe yesterday
It's a city of strangers
Some come to work, some to play
A city of strangers
Some come to stare, some to stay
And everyday
The ones who stay Can find each other in the crowded streets and the guarded parks
By the rusty fountains and the dusty trees with the battered barks
And they walk together past upholstered walls with the crude remarks
And they meet at parties through the friends of friends who they never know
"Do I pick you up or do I meet you there, shall we let it go?"
"Did you get my message, 'cause I looked in vain."
"Can we see each other Tuesday if it doesn't rain?"
"Look, I'll call you in the morning or my service will explain."
And another hundred people just got off of the train.
It's a city of strangers
Some come to work, some to play
A city of strangers
Some come to stare, some to stay
And everyday
Some go away
Or they find each other in the crowded streets and the
guarded parks
By the rusty fountains and the dusty trees with the
battered barks
And they walk together past upholstered walls with the
crude remarks

And they meet at parties through the friends of friends
who they never know

go?"

"Did you get my message, 'cause I looked in vain."

explain."

And another hundred people just got off of the train.

And another hundred people just got off of the train

And another hundred people just got off of the train

Another hundred people just got off of the train.
