passenger seat (song of songs 4:7-9)
(t. mccloud, r. ripperger)

I look at her and have to smile As we go driving for a while her hair blowing in the open windows of my car as we go, the traffic lights, i watch them glimmer in her eyes
In the darkness of the evening
And I've got all that I need
Right here in the passenger seat
Oh and I can't keep my eyes on the road
Knowing that she's inches from me
We stop to get something to drink my mind clouds and I can't think scared to death to say I love her then the moon peeks from the clouds I hear my heartbeat it's so loud try to tell her simply, that...
That I've got all the I need
Right here in the passenger seat
Oh and I can't keep my eyes on the road
Knowing that she's inches from me
Oh and I've got all the I need
Right here in the passenger seat
Oh and I can't keep my eyes on the road
Knowing that she's inches from me
Oh and I know this love grow Oh I've got all the I need
Right here in the passenger seat
Oh and I can't keep my eyes on the road
Knowing that she's inches from me
And I've got all that I need
Right here in the passenger seat
Oh and I can't keep my eyes on the road
Knowing that she's inches from me
And I've got all that I need
Right here in the passenger seat
Oh and I can't keep my eyes on the road
Knowing that she's inches from me
And I've got all that I need

Right here in the passenger seat
