Lately I've been thinking,
That I need a change of scenery.

These bright city lights - so blinding,
Its unbearable.

And I believe, there's more to be - if I could see
What's is right in front of me.

And (Ahhh), now I see,
There's a wallpaper sky all around me
It surrounds me
-it's always better underneath

Walking on this sidewalk,
It can only take me to what's known

I need a face of refuge.
Undeniably undiscovered - unsean

And I believe, there's more to be - if I could see
What's is right in front of me.

And, now I see,
There's a wallpaper sky all around me
It surrounds me
-it's always better underneath

Cause underneath this wallpaper sky
- A boy whose dream is to fly.
Paper polka dots - his hopes were so high.

And now, And now I see,
The wallpaper sky all around me
It surrounds me (And i see)
And now, And now I see,
The wallpaper sky all around me
It surrounds me (And i see)
-it's always better underneath
