I was right, to call you my dream,
May be a fool, but you see through me.

No one understands like you do,
Even the stars look at you,
Take my hand, let the world slip away,
My heart belongs to right,
Say you will stay with me tonight.

Thought I was done, lost in disguise,
But you were the one, bringing truth to the light,
No one understands like you do,
Even the stars look at you,
Take my hand, let the world slip away,
My heart belongs to right,
Say you will stay with me tonight.

I thought I had no hope, No love and no desire,
You took my hand in yours, and make the moon glow, brighter.

No one understands like you do,
Even the stars look at you,
Take my hand, let the world slip away,
No one understands like you do..
