Yeah I'm the
freak goddess
controlling destiny
with my adventures
rising up like the sun
I'm ready to come
with the life I bust
your philosophy
one of the most widely quoted nominee
cry no quits
cause really devoted realizing that
the source is the force remembering that
the world is yours
this intention
providing you with
this information
the filthy measures
of you constipation
puzzling questions
all night long

My own invention
is my intention.

Dreaming while I run
I'm leaning against the sun
waking up my brain thinkin' what I'll be.

It's only a fraction
a movement of my space
with good intention
embracing you
from this pain
for this live I
bust your fidelity
I am the one hiding
you from insanity

don't you tri to run
or neglect to see
realizing that the
source is the force
remembering that
the world is yours
this convention
is leading you
into dimension
close the tension
puzzling questions
all night long.

Chorus.

your addiction
is my protection
puzzling questions
all night long.

got to wake up my brain (2x) see what I will be...
