a matter of facts by Dizzy Man's Band Water flows and river goes dumb men don't, but wise men knows it's all a matter of facts.

People die and some get born there's no trumpet with no horn it's all a matter of facts.

Yeah, if there's someone someone who turns facts away Yeah, if there's someone
someone who turns facts away.

There's no smoke without a fire there's no lie without a liar it's all a maater of facts.

There's no singer with no voice there's no chooser with no choice it's all a matter of facts.

Yeah, if there's someone
someone who turns facts away Yeah, if there's someone
someone who turns facts away.

I don't care what's wrong or right there's no fact that you can hide be happy and turn it away
be happy and turn it away.
