Annie I remember, games in the street.
You tried to boss me, mmm and I tried to cheat
My mother and your mother, lived don the lane.
I stole your rag doll, and you stepped on my paper airplane.

Ahhh, ring around the rosy, to a ring on your hand.
We were always lovers, mmm but never friends
Till we lost each other, with the games we played.
Long since parted, but the letter still stayed.

Annie Annie Over, free free free.
Since we've been on our own, look how we both have grown.
Annie, Annie Over , free free free.
Love is not a game now....it's reality.

Now I'm not ashamed now, if I have to cry.
And you can show you want me, without being shy.
Feels so much better, a seeing you again.
Instead of hide and seek, you know it's hand in hand.

Annie Annie Over, free free free.
Second time for you and me,
seems like it's meant to be.
Annie Annie Over, free free free.
Love is not a game now...it's reality.

Free free free...it's reality
Free free free...it's reality
Free free free...it's reality
Free free free...it's reality
