What's the name of your latest companion?
Do I know him, have you told him what you told me?
What's the course of your latest adventure?
Does he track you, will he back you, can he keep you free?

There is more to life than dreaming
There is more to love than makin' it
There is more to you than meets the eye

What's the state of your new situation?
Is he giving, is he willing to let you be?
What's the chance for your new true confession?
Does he make it, will he fake it, can he really see?

There is more to life than dreaming
There is more to love than makin' it
There is more to you than meets the eye

One way or another, we all lose a lover
Some live, some die, some never learn to try
One love for another's lifetime
Oh, lifetime

What's the price of your passing confusion?
Have you sold out, can I hold out, will I live that long?
What's the dream in the back of you memory?
Can you say it, do you pray, has your memory gone?

There is more to life than dreaming
There is more to love than makin' it
There is more to you than meets the eye

One way or another, we all lose a lover
Some die, some live, some never learn to give
One love for another's lifetime

Oh, there is more to life than dreaming
There is more to love than makin' it
There is more to you than meets the eye

One way or another, we all lose a lover

Some die, some live, some never learn to try
One love for another's lifetime

Woh, there is more to life than dreaming
There is more to love than makin' it
There is more to you than meets the eye
