You've filled this house with things of gold
While handing crumbs to the old and poor
And then you preach about being pure
And wonder why we're laughing

In your old way you're trying to find us
But we can't follow what's behind us
Too much blind faith, it will blind us
Though sometimes it's a blessing

But I remember when I still embraced you
A little prayer would ease my mind
Till I saw that you hide
From the misery outside
So I left you behind

But all the other teachings
That I've tried were about the same
One grain of truth mixed
With confusion caused by man
Since you're around here anyway

May as well get you back on your feet again
Get right back up on your feet
Don't you know we need somebody to
Do some work down in the street

You might just touch somebody
Start to think about today
Throw your robe and staff away
And break away from yesterday

Ah, tell me can we reach you
I don't know
Still we got to go
From here to there eventually

While others die up against the wall
You take the time to tell us all
'Bout how we're not supposed to ball
You really are a riot

It's got nothin' to do with Heaven or Hell
What I do in bed, I'm not gonna tell
What I'm talking about, you know dam well
You really ought to try it

But I remember when I still embraced you
A little prayer would ease my mind
Till I saw that you hide
From the misery outside
So I left you behind

But all the other teachings
That I've tried were about the same
One grain of truth mixed
With confusion caused by man
But since you're around here anyway

May as well get you back on your feet again
Get right back up on your feet
Don't you know we need somebody to
Do some work down in the street

You might just touch somebody
Start to think about today
Throw your robe and staff away
And break away from yesterday

Ah, tell me can we reach you
I don't know
Still we got to go
From here to there eventually

Who, who, Jesus will save?
It's time we wait for
His [incomprehensible] you see
Who Jesus will save?

He's coming back
And you better believe
He's coming back
Don't you believe me? Yeah
