Across the deserts sands
I watch a caravan
Dreaming could take me to you

As the East wind blows
I shiver to my bones
And all I can think of is you

I still feel you here
The memories are clear
So don't go forgetting my love

How we learned to be free
How we dreamed the same dream
Now nothing's what it seems

Paradise lost is a place without you
In the shadow of love
There's no room with a view

Walking alone on the sand
Wish you were here again
I wish you were here again

Watch the sun go down
Then head back into town
Same way I used to with you

Up and down these streets
The music sounds so sweet
But it always reminds me of you

I still feel you here
The memories so clear
So don't go forgetting my love

How we learned to be free
How we shared everything
Until you come back to me

Paradise lost is a place without you
In the shadow of love

There's no room with a view
Walking alone on the sand
Wish you were here again

And tell me, baby
Do you remember
Laying here with me?
Do you remember
The way we used to be?

Paradise lost is a place without you
In the shadow of love
Theres' no room with a view

Walking alone on the sand
Wish you were here again
I wish you were here again

And tell me, baby
Do you remember?
Do you remember?
Do you remember?
Do you remember?
