Holding you so gently
I gave you room to breathe
Now all I feel is empty
Why did you have to leave?

What happened to forever?
Is nothing built to last?
My whole world could shatter
I'm fading fast, yeah, I'm fading fast

I need someone to save me
You don't know 'til you've been in love
I need to find a way back
And I don't know if I'm strong enough

And though I'm longing for yesterday
I guess there's really nothing left to say
'Cause now that's just a memory
Since you took your love away
Since you took your love away

I'm trying to forgive you
But I'm not proud to say
That after all we've been through
It's hard to find a way

I'm trying not to hate you
For pushing me aside
But when a heart is breaking
Well, it's hard to hide
Yes, it's hard to hide now

I need someone to save me
You don't know 'til you've been in love
It's hard to find a way back
And I don't know if I'm strong enough

And though I'm longing for yesterday
'Cause now that's just a memory
Since you took your love away
Since you took your love away

You took your love
Oh baby
Now I need you

I need someone to save me
You don't know 'til you've been in love
I need to find a way back
But I don't know if I'm strong enough

I need someone to save me
You don't know 'til you've been in love
It's hard to find a way back
And I don't know if I'm strong enough

I need someone to save me
You don't know 'til you've been in love
It's hard to find a way back
And I don't know if I'm strong enough

'Cause now that's just a memory
Since you took your love away
Took your love away

You took your love, you took your love
And I'll never be the same
I'll never be the same, no no
Baby baby

I need someone to save me
I need someone to save me
