My love after all we've said and done
Are you tellin' me that the time has come?
To go our separate ways
And now after all that we've been thru
If you won't let me make it up to you
The truth I'll have you face
You won't be here tomorrow
But I'll get thru the sorrow baby
(Now that you're gone)
I'll keep the fires burning tho' my hearts breakin'
(I'll carry on)
Cos every day I'm learning life's for the taking
No matter what, I know that in the end
At least I can be certain
This heart will love again
I know we can't go on living yesterdays
Wish there was something more that I could say
To make my heart forget
But now, if you really have to go
Then I must somehow find the strength to show
No sadness to regret

You won't be here tomorrow

But I'll se thru the sorry baby

You won't be here tomorrow

But I'll get thru the sorrow baby

(Now that you're gone)

I'll keep the fires burning tho' my hearts breakin'

(I'll carry on)

Cos every day I'm learning life's for the taking

No matter what, I know that in the end

At least I can be certain

This heart will love again

I won't be here tomorrow

I will get thru the sorrow baby I will love again
