"Pay No Attention"

it's that kind of thinking baby that gets me in trouble quit talking to me now baby i just want be left alone it's so simple for you to move into my world and break it well i can't take it pay no attention to my broken heart it doesn't matter my world's fallen apart solve this equation, my humilliation my eyes are a dead give away my ears to the phone my body's a tabloid paper if my smile didn't tell you all see my sorry eyes and say your last goodbye the jury now decides i'm not supposed to cry take away from me all my hopes and dreams it's easy when you're all alone and dying for someone to hold on to
