It's like someone is watching
Like someone is close, I can feel you, so near
I'm reaching for something
Please give me a sign, getting warm but still cold

Every shadow I see looks more and more like you did
Why do you have to be so far away
'Cause I'm still here
Who will be there, if I need you today
'Cause I'm still here

When I talk you listen
'Cause if everything's said, why am I still waiting
And the shadows I see look more and more like you

Why do you have to be so far away;
'Cause I'm still here
Who will be there, if I need you today
'Cause I'm still, you know that I'm still here

All the time I saw you try to make it undone
Your toughest fight but you carried on
And I know that you've been telling me to hold on

Why do you have to be so far away;
'Cause I'm still, you know that I'm still here

I'm still here
Still here
Still here, still here, still here
