Feel the fire burning inside of me stronger each day
Feel the fire burning inside of me never fades away
never fades away

Too much of a good thing will lead to suffering
Too much of a good thing can be a ball and chain

Didn't want to fall down again today that's how it goes I'll just burn out and fade away can't let it go can't let it go

Too much of a good thing will lead to suffering
Too much of a good thing can be a ball and chain

Can you feel it, feel it the way I feel tonight?
Can you feel it, feel it now everything's alright

Feel the fire burning inside of me stronger today
I know this affliction is killing me never fades away
never fades away

Too much of a good thing will lead to suffering
Too much of a good thing can be a ball and chain

Can you feel it, feel it the way I feel tonight?
Can you feel it, feel it now everything's alright
