"Monstre Sacre"

Hastened decrepit
Old shrunken apple
Ready for the pit
I have let you go without forgiving

Or understanding
So now, you are gone
There could be nothing
You live within me, we communicate

The light it creates and the Tears it generates
Bring the forgiveness, forgiveness

Don't be there now
Don't let me down
Don't be there now
Don't let me down

Life half sapped away
It took all that time
Since you passed away
To moisten the love

We have forged
The sought after
Union brought us together
And the fullness

The completeness
The infinite simplicity
The world offers forgiveness, forgiveness
