Suffer you little children
Remain passive and fearful
Suffer don't grow out of it
Revel and let's celebrate

The poor love of this poor world
The sad love, the vampire

Suffer you little children
Remain passive and fearful
Suffer don't grow out of it
Revel and let's celebrate

The poor love of this poor world
The sad love, the vampire

We who're young and beautiful
We who can stand up and walk
Our lives we will learn to control
We who're young and beautiful

Respond revolution when
We hear the word suffering

It's our lives we'll learn to control
We who are young and beautiful
Respond the word revolution
When we hear the word suffering

We who're young and beautiful
We who can stand up and walk
Our lives we'll learn to control
We who're young and beautiful

We hear the word suffering
