The world is full of indisputables
With whom all of us share reality
The world is in fact just that
A long indisputable and rich tradition

The world I know of, I'm extrusive
To be jealous is to conform

Not the only one
A nominal thing
The law of division

Jealousy will make you suffer
From being excluded from the universal
Jealousy will make you suffer
From being crazy from being a woman

Not the only one
A nominal thing
The law of division
Not the only one

The world is full of indisputables
With whom all of us share reality
The world is in fact just that
A long indisputable and rich tradition

Not the only one
A nominal thing
The law of division

Jealousy will make you suffer
From being excluded from the universal
Jealousy will make you suffer
From being crazy from being a woman

Not the only one
A nominal thing
The law of division

Not the only one
The only one
