"Ghost"

You say you show yourself everyday
But where's my words from a God so great
Blown by the wind you said you made
But I don't see it
I think I lost you

I use to believe without seeing
But they burnt down the bridges
From my heart to yours

Sometimes it's like
Your some kind of Ghost
But I can't lie
Your life to my soul

Everybody else gets the blame
But it's only me who has walked away
I ain't that bad I'm ok
There's only so much time in my day
