Take this time
Close your eyes
Try to open up your mind
I will lead You
A distant land
A dying man
Lying wounded in your hands
Wonder why he's bleeding
Pierced, Denied
For all to see
In shame, In pride
I've let you bleed
You lived, to die
To set us free
I hear your cry
Whisper over me
And you will find me opened up
I'm broken pouring out my love
You need a life, mine is enough
I'm dying cause I'm here to save you
Looking down as a bitter child
As my life and yours collide
I am dying with you
Until this day, I've run away
But you bring comfort as you say
I am with you
Cause I've seen you crying out
Can't believe your looking down
There's so much love and mercy in your eyes
