Slowly, Slow dancing around this room
Gravity, pulling me toward you
Slowly, Slow dancing around this room
Carry me home with the smell of perfume
Playing board games, playing charades
Playing the radio until the light of day hits my eyes
Then I'll wake up and say
Let's slow dance this day away

Slowly, Slow dancing in my dreams
Slowly, Slow dancing in sweet dreams
Sleep tight, tonight honey lovely
I'll see you tomorrow when we say
Let's slow dance this day away

Oh, no matter what it brings
We'll just float in mid air
And watch it all go and fly into space
We'll slow dance this day away

Hair is blowing, windows open
Breeze is flowing, and smelling like rain today
Come my way, we'll treasure this day
When the dust clouds disappear without a trace
And then we'll wake up and say
Let's slow dance this day away
