Oh oh oh.

Yeah, what's the chance of you and me?

The two of us in a make believe.

3D movie let's subtract the

Math and talk about chemistry.

She still counts on her fingers sometimes,

But she looks oh, so fine by my side.

Well isn't she something?

I just can't stop humming: No, ohh.

And, maybe girl you rock my world,

Flip, turn it upside down and inside out.

Feeling just fine like we should alright,

Rolling out of bed just to do it all again.

Grab my shoes and walk right out the door,

Yeah girl I couldn't ask for more

Oh oh oh

Let's forget about math and history

The Milky Way, the galaxy, the gravity

That's pulling you like glue right towards me

And, maybe girl you rock my world

Flip, turn it upside down and inside out

Feeling just fine like we should alright

Rolling out of bed just to do it all again.

Grab my shoes and walk right out the door,

Yeah girl I couldn't ask for more

'Cause the gravity keeps happening

To disappear when you are near

But you seem to be what's making

Me miss a beat.

And, maybe girl you rock my world

Flip, turn it upside down and inside out

And, maybe girl you rock my world

Flip, turn it upside down and inside out

Feeling just fine like we should alright

Rolling out of bed just to do it all again.

And, maybe girl you rock my world

Flip, turn it upside down and inside out
Feeling just fine like we should alright
Rolling out of bed just to do it all again.
Grab my shoes and walk right out the door,
Yeah girl I couldn't ask for more.
