I'm used to being on my own
Keeping my heart shut down
If I don't go there
I won't get hurt
But the pretty girl said
if you're never ever gonna get hurt again
Are you ever gonna feel another thing my friend?
and I like the way she talks

And I li-li-li-like the way she spins my world around
and my he-he-he-heart's good for one more kick
So how do we do this?
Cause I believe you're worth it
How do we do this?
What does it take?
And is it gonna break me down?
I found, that nothing can come from nothing
So you'd better come round, I'm down
How do we do this?

So tell me if you're ready
Cause things are getting heavy
And I don't wanna fall apart
Cause spending time with you,
Was all I wanna do
You know it's scary, giving up heart
And you give me that something
Been waiting so long
And you make me smile

That's why I wrote this song

And I li-li-li-like the way you spin my world around
and my he-he-he-heart's good for one more kick
So how do we do this?
Cause I believe you're worth it
How do we do this?
What does it take?
And is it gonna break me down?
I found, that nothing can come from nothing
So you'd better come round, I'm down

How do we do this?

I'll risk it
One kiss is,
All that it's taking Arms shakin'
heart breakin'
I think you'll be worth the pain

And I li-li-li-like the way she spins my world around
and my he-he-he-heart's good for one more kick
So how do we do this?
Cause I believe you're worth it
How do we do this?
What does it take?
And is it gonna break me down?
I found, that nothing can come from nothing
So you'd better come round, I'm down
How do we do this?
