[Intro: Greg Street]

Man y'all know who it is, you know what it is!!!

This your boy Greg Street!!!

Yo Kayslay, it's time to drop this remix!!!

[Verse 1: Busta Rhymes]

Slay! Aiiyo it's funny when I sit and think about the what I gotta do

How I been makin the streets cook and sizzle like a barbeque

Dominatin the soul of the streets without a choice
To send a message to every hood while you hear my fuckin voice again

You can't stop nothin that I do it gets no easier
As I continue to apply the pressure fuck the media
Gave my dreads to my mother, I'm thinkin with a clear head

If I ever honor my brother Israel Ramirez
Despite the shit the hood'll carry the torch with me
With a single hand I reinstate the swag of New York City
For so many years I've been doin it, see the way I grown

You can't stop nothin I'm doin or move me out the throne

Big Bangin niggaz consistent you know who runnin this rap shit

Bus and Kayslay go 'head talk slick Flipmode, Streetsweepers bitch don't go against the grain

The alliance is official, and you can't stop the reign

[Chorus: Razah] (*Sampled loop is from "You Can't Stop The Rain" by Loose Ends)

You can't stop the reign, you can't stop the reign no
When it starts to fall

(*You can't stop, you can't stop, you can't stop, you can't stop)

[Verse 2: Shaq Diesel]

Though shall not fuck with nor seed Diesel
Dog Mafia Capo life modern as Rocko
My entourage turn yours to mirages
Four, five and sixes head crack garages
Every place I visit, I got land there
How a playa stand there and say they ball like Deez?
Hell no!!!
Been nice as blue and white stripes before the yellows
Before King James, before Carmello
Any before me, hell no I'm the realest
Haters sayin they bet that B.I.G. is the illest
I've been doin this since Pop shot Quillis Brick City billionaire you know what the deal is Diesel Dog Mafia got yo' ass sparked Papoose, Corey Gunz, Box, D.O.G. Money Mark
You see those five a shut it down if I die
I put that on my diamond grizzle, your fuckin with the dizzle, what

[Chorus: Razah] (*Sampled loop is from "You Can't
Stop The Rain" by Loose Ends)
You can't stop the reign, you can't stop the reign no
When it starts to fall
(*You can't stop, you can't stop, you can't stop, you
can't stop)

[Verse 3: Papoose]
Papoose, Pa-poose!!!
Do not disturb, the King's usin the bedroom
Him and his Queen they just came out the restroom
Some say they hate to do it to you, but what's the hassle
I wouldn't hate to do it to you I would love to clap you
I took rappers money, I use to love the battle
Now I sit on 106 & Park and judge the battle
The most dominant most prominent most moderate
No colleges no scholarships no promises
Flow negative flow positive both opposite
Spoke both sides of it shown that there's no stoppin it
No tolerance for these haters with no compliments
Don't try to diss so tired just slow grindin this Overpowered this so powerless so cowardness
So wise when his own died with no monument
So confident rose out of it so bottomless
Broke providence and we did it with no politics

[Chorus: Razah] (*Sampled loop is from "You Can't
Stop The Rain" by Loose Ends)
You can't stop the reign, you can't stop the reign no
When it starts to fall
(*You can't stop, you can't stop, you can't stop, you
can't stop)

[Verse 4: Remy Ma] (*Sampled loop is from "You Can't Stop The Rain" by Loose Ends)

The Queen of N.Y.

Ok I understand you can't stop the reign

But the girl too fly you can't stop my plane

I ain't a stand by bitch my flight can't get delayed

I got jet connect the itinerary don't change

My chain a hundred thousand me scared not hardly

Tell Dave to make me somethin that make niggaz

wanna rob me

When I come through in somethin new it's to set an example

Have everybody sayin (Oooh!!!) like the chick on the sample

Since when your known for speakin your mind and whylin they try to brand you

Keep you out of the loop knowledge minimal stamp you

As a troublemaker not known not never planned to

Be the joy my goals was always to surpass you

I'm spittin fire like a phoenix from ashes I'm brand new

Plan to, feelin like it ain't nothin I can do

Now name a bitch you know better than Remy Ma

Signed, unsigned, new chick or veteran nobody

[Chorus: Razah] (*Sampled loop is from "You Can't Stop The Rain" by Loose Ends)

You can't stop the reign, you can't stop the reign no
When it starts to fall

(*You can't stop, you can't stop, you can't stop, you
can't stop)

You can't stop the reign, you can't stop the reign no
When it starts to fall

(*You can't stop, you can't stop, you can't stop, you
can't stop)
