Hold up shortie
Wha-Wha-What's wrong
You changed the locks, threw my shit on the lawn
And now you won't answer the-the-the phone
I don't know what's going on

(Just this morning)
We did what we did
(It was callin')
My name again and again
It's just a vicious cycle that we go through
Right now I need something to hold on to

It's an earthquake
I just don't know what it is that you want from me
The shit that you be on is so crazy
I can't take it no more
You got my world shaking
Your love is like an earthquake
Girl why you wanna be like that
You leave but then you come right back
I can't take it no more
You got my world shaking
Your love is like an earthquake

You got me thinking
Wha-What could it be
It's probably someone lying on me
It's probably one of your friends
Somebody's lying on me
Why do we, go through this, all the time
'Cause I just wanna love you girl
But I'm losing my mind

('Cause this morning)
We did what we did
(It was callin')
My name again and again
It's just a vicious cycle that we go through
Right now I need something to hold on to

It's an earthquake

I just don't know what it is that you want from me
The shit that you be on is so crazy
I can't take it no more
You got my world shaking
Your love is like an earthquake
Why you wanna be like that
You leave but then you come right back
I can't take it no more
You got my world shaking
Your love is like an earthquake

Every time I think, everything between us is okay
You gone and changed the game on me
I just hate it girl
I can't take it, 'cause I don't want you to start
Accusing me, asking where I've been
Trust in me, here we go again
I'm trying my patience, I'm trying like hell
But I just can't take it
When my world start shaking again

I just don't know what it is that you want from me
The shit that you be on is so crazy
I can't take it no more
You got my world shaking
Your love is like an earthquake
Girl why you wanna to be like that
You leave but then you come right back
I can't take it no more
You got my world shaking
Your love is like an earthquake

You got my world shaking
Your love is like an earthquake
Girl why you wanna be like that
You leave but then you come right back
I can't take it no more
You got my world shaking
Your love is like an earthquake
