So many girls want to holla But I can't seem to find the right one Everytime I think I got her She starts playing games or doing something to turn me off But I've come to this conclusion Being a player is the solution Till a Shawty come along and make me stay home and give the world to her

She Can be so beautiful But half the night shes against the wall She can even cook and wash clothes

It gets too emotional

That's why

One love

Girl I'm trying to find one On the search I'm trying to find one Sumone that I know can hold me down That's what I need is one love That's what I need is one love I'm searching for that one

Now every night I come across A nice girl and we hit it off We might spend some time together Baby gave me pleasure She was down for whatever And outta nowhere she started trippin' She got on the phone with all her women And I'm on the road handling buisness And she thinks I'm pimping And freaking with other women

She Can be so beautiful But half the night shes against the wall She can even cook and wash cloth
