Don't you ever hide your wings?
It's not your fault that they don't make you fly
No that's cause we were born and raised
Into this cage that surrounds our time

Oh but the day we flap away
It seems to slowly come in sight
With a rising sun's whisper
"Death ain't no threat to life!"

Fear no more!

Don't you ever doubt your heart
It's not your fault that there's so much pain
That's cause it got torn apart
By a mistake that's etched into our brains

Oh but the day that we're aware
It seems to slowly come in sight
With a rising sun's whisper
"Love makes this place divine!"

Fear no more!
