All the answers are thrown into your face
Nothing left to know
Where even dreams just cannot find their place
A boy like me has no home

But the worthless gold I'm trying to find
Will someday bring me back to life

Cause we're nothing if we don't try to find our truth
Nothing but dead

All the questions petrified in fear
Nowhere left to go
Where one must fight not to shed a tear
I prefer to be alone

But the worthless gold I'm trying to find
Will someday bring me back to life

Cause we're nothing if we don't try to find out truth
Nothing but dead
Oh, we're nothing if we don't start to fight for our souls
Nothing but dead

If this is life how come I feel so far away from being real?
If this is life how come I feel so dead?

Cause we're nothing if we don't try to find out truth
Nothing but dead
Oh, we're nothing if we don't start to fight for our souls
Nothing but dead
Nothing but dead
