No time to spare
I can feel your hair
On my skin

I can see right through that smile, what a day
It's been

I need some answers
'Cause my sanity
Is leaving me

There's something wrong
But there's something right
Here with me

For the first time
I feel alive
For the first time
I feel alive

It's hard to say
But i fell for it
Right away

Not sure what it
Was, but it
Was new

So much to figure out
But never mind
'Cause I'm here with you
Yeah, I'm here with you

For the first time
I feel alive
For the first time
I feel alive

And your eyes shine
Like the fire under water
And the life it shines

Through you

And i can see the light
Is breaking through the broken sky
And finds its way
To you

And your eyes shine
Like the fire under water
And the life it shines
Through you

And i can see the light
Is breaking through the broken sky
And finds its way
To you

For the first time
I feel alive
