I don't know where we're going
I don't know if I care
As long it's with you, I'd go anywhere
We're gonna need each other
So I'll drive while you sleep
And when I get too tired you can take the wheel from me

Ooh, it's gonna be alright
But it's a hard road baby that we're traveling on tonight
Ooh, we're gonna reach the light
But it's a hard road baby that we're moving on down tonight

Outside this dusty windshield
I can't see very far
But this moment is forever here inside this car
So roll down your window
Let the wind rush through your hair
Turn up the radio, slide on over here

Cause ooh, it's gonna be alright
But it's a hard road baby that we're traveling on tonight
Ooh, we're gonna reach the light
But it's a hard road baby that we're moving on down
tonight
And when the morning comes
We'll stop and catch our breath
I'm gonna look into your eyes
And again I will confess

I don't know where we're going
I don't know if I care
But as long it's with you, I'd go anywhere
We're gonna need each other
So I'll drive while you sleep
And when I get too tired you can take the wheel from
me

Cause I say ooh, it's gonna be alright
But it's a hard road baby that we're traveling on tonight
Ooh, we're gonna reach the light

But it's a hard road baby that we're moving on down
tonight

Ooh, we're gonna be alright
But it's a hard road baby that we're traveling on tonight
Ooh, we're gonna reach the light
But it's a hard road baby that we're moving on down
tonight
