Here I am again, now, acting like a crazy fool
Every time I get to rockin', I always run into you
I never did understand why you want to be so cruel

Well, Annie, is tonight the night?
Do you think the moon is right?
You don't have to tell me you will
Just say that you might

I know, you told me once, I guess, you coulda told me twice
I guess I keep hopin' some day you're gonna treat me nice
I'm tryin' to get next to you, cold as ice

Well, Annie, is tonight the night?
Do you think the moon is right?
Just say that you might

Now I'm not fool enough thinkin' I'm the only one Got me comin' and a-goin' 'till I'm about to come undone
Not tryin' to find love, I'm lookin' for a little fun

Well, Annie, is tonight the night?
Do you think the moon is right?
You don't have to tell me you will
Just say that you might

Well, Annie, is tonight the night?
Do you think the moon is right?
You don't have to tell me you will
Just say that you might
