Crying, crying, waiting, waiting
Hoping, hoping you'll come back
I just can't seem to get you off my mind

Crying, crying, waiting, waiting
Hoping, hoping you'll come back
You're the one I love
I think about you all the time

Crying, crying, doo d-doo doo
Tears keep a-falling all night long
Waiting, waiting, doo d-doo doo
It seems so useless I know it's wrong

To keep on crying, crying, waiting, waiting
Hoping, hoping you'll come back baby
Someday soon things will change
And you'll be mine

Crying, crying, doo d-doo doo
Tears keep a-falling all night long
Waiting, waiting, doo d-doo doo
It seems so useless I know it's wrong

To keep on crying, crying, waiting, waiting
Hoping, hoping you'll come back
Maybe someday soon things will change
And you'll be mine

Crying, crying
Waiting, waiting
Hoping, hoping
