I'm running down this highway
Don't remember where I slept last night
I just remember halfway through the night
I woke up stiff with fright

I dreamed there was no asphalt
I dreamed there was no gasoline
Felt like a rat caught in some nowhere town
I woke up and screamed

This highway
This highway
This highway
This highway
This highway
This highway's mine

I grew up on the drag strip
I used to shut 'em down
I used to take their pink slips
There's a sucker born in every town

I never showed no mercy
I blew them all away
They stood there and cursed me
As I towed their lives away

I used to run the cocaine
I used to run the weed
These days I'm just running
Tryin' to make this highway bleed

Sometimes the only difference
'Tween me and this machine
Is I run on desperation
She runs on gasoline

I'm the Road Master
The Asphalt Blaster
Mess with me and I'll shut you down
The bad thing, the highway king
And I've come to claim my kingdom now
