I hear a freight train
but there ain't no tracks, no tracks
i see a white cloud, but the sky is black i'm too confused to stay

i told my baby
that i'm losing my head, my head
that i'm losing my head, my head i taste the white wine, but the bottle's red
i'm too confused to stay

too confused to walk the line crazy enough to lose my mind hole in my head that i just can't lose help me lord i'm too confused

i'm in a car wreck
and i don't even drive no no
i can see my ghost, but i'm still alive
