Come here now
Sit down and tell me what you think
This life's about
Do you think it's in our hands or
All planned out
And if you're unsure 'bout it baby
Don't speak out loud
About the story of your life

As I see you laugh at your sobriety
As I see you quiver with anxiety
I can see right through you now
I can see you inside out
Please don't tell me
You're all that you could ever be
Please don't tell me
You're showered with integrity
It's okay baby I'll hear you out
As long as I'm here all night long

Far away there is a land
On this land there is a throne
On this throne there waits
A beautiful girl that wants to be discovered
Do you give this girl a hand
Do you leave this girl alone
Do you come so close that
She locks you inside
Now you're part of the puzzle

Is it the depth inside her eyes
Or just the smoothness of her thighs
Is she your slut just for the night
Is she the moon that lights your life

So don't be afraid
Believe in yourself baby
Life will revise its ways
Promise me tomorrow's not just
Another day
'Cause looking at you

The sun hasn't yet
Seen your face
Unleash the human in your mind

As I see you laugh at your sobriety
As I see you quiver with anxiety
I can see right through you now
I can see you inside out
Please don't tell me
You're all that you could ever be
Please don't tell me
You're showered with integrity
It's okay baby I'll hear you out
As long as I'm here all night long

Far away there is a land
On this land there is a throne
On this throne there waits
A beautiful girl that wants to be discovered
Do you give this girl a hand
Do you leave this girl alone
Do you come so close that
She locks you inside
Now you're part of the puzzle

Is it the depth inside her eyes
Or just the smoothness of her thighs
Is she your slut just for the night
Is she the moon that lights your life

Come here now
Sit down and tell me what you think
This life's about
Do you think it's in our hands or
All planned out
And if you're unsure 'bout it baby
Don't speak out loud
Unleash the music in your mind
