Through the blinds it's beaming;
I'm awake and dreaming
dreams of me and you . . .

You're such a lovely, smart, sweet girl
And I'm gonna wella-welcome you to my world
An' I'm givin' you all I've got to give of love that's true;
There's something special in your arms,
There's something magic in your kiss
An' I'm feelin so glad I'm lyin' here and next to you.

All through the night
The wild ocean waves keep crashing;

And in your room
Their clean, serene perfume . . .

Ooh, the moon is gleaming,
Through your blinds it's beaming;
I'm awake an' dreaming
Dreams of me and you...

You're such a lovely, smart, sweet girl
An' I'm gonna well-welcome you to my world
An' I'm givin' you all I've got to give of love that true;
There's something special in your arms,
There's something magic in your kiss
An' I'm feelin' so glad I'm lyin' here an' next to you,
An' I'm feelin' so glad I'm lyin' here an' next to you.
