Remember when I had to choose
If I should keep you in my head or heart
Now we're apart
I spend my days erasing you
And everything you got into my life
Alright

My head is trying to keep up
And I don't know it's like it's hard to do
When she's with you
I take a step away
And throw myself onto another empty page
Okay

I wanna keep you in my pocket for another day to take you out
If that's alright
We're gonna take a little trip
Into the woods and kill some precious time
Okay

I dig a hole, I throw you in and put a stone on top to make it nice
Goodnight
You'll have a good time in the dark
And I'll be moving on into the light
Alright

Beating on a better drum
Dancing right above you
Rave until my body pop
Shake it up another one
Move it all without you
Come on make my body pop
Trying to keep it together

Through heart aches 'till wall breaks
Beating on another drum
Better off without you

I wanna keep you to myself
In a hidden place where no one else can come
Deep underground
If I can't have you
No one else can ever touch you like I used to do
And every week I will be stopping by
To tell you all about my life
My perfect life
And you'll be listening
Wishing you could keep me in your pocket
Head and heart
Too late
