When the lights go down
You come here again
You come here even though your body's at its end

You call my name
Right across my heart
I'll hear it and I'll be right back there at the start

Don't say you'll come here again
Cos I won't be let down
I got a message
I gotta get on back to you now
One more time

But it feels so sweet
Looking out for you
I'll believe it even though I know it won't come true

Don't say you'll come here again
Cos I won't be let down
I got a message
I gotta get on back to you now
One more time
X2

When does it end
When the lights go down?
Or when you sleep
yeah

Don't say you'll come here again
Cos I won't be let down
I got a message
I gotta get on back to you now
One more time
One more time
One more time
