He's back from the dead to show who's your boss
He's had it up to here with the upside-down cross
Be prepared to be pummeled by the holy fist
Jesus is back and this time he's pissed

He's not gonna take the abuse anymore
Die for his sins on the killing floor
Enter the pit and you'll enter the slaughter
He will walk on your spine like he walks on water

You're all gonna die by The Moshpit Messiah
Meet your demise by The Moshpit Messiah
Turn your blood into wine by The Moshpit Messiah
Crucified by The Moshpit Messiah

Enter the pit and he'll make you his bitch

Satanic shirts is all he sees
Fuse is short from blasphemy
He'll make you wish you were never born
Grabs your head and crowns it with thorns

With hammer and cross you cannot compete
Pulls out the spikes and he nails down your feet
Displays yor crucifixion all over town
With your cross hanging upside down

You're all gonna die by The Moshpit Messiah
Meet your demise by The Moshpit Messiah
Turn your blood into wine by The Moshpit Messiah
Crucified by The Moshpit Messiah

Enter the pit and he'll make you his bitch

Goes to Norway on Halloween
Infiltrates the black metal scene
Ties up church burners in barbed wire

Dowsed in gas he sets them on fire

He will forgive you if you will repent

Or he will bash your face in cement

You will respect it's his demand

Or he will watch you die through the hole in his hand

You're all gonna die by The Moshpit Messiah

Meet your demise by The Moshpit Messiah

Turn your blood into wine by The Moshpit Messiah

Crucified by The Moshpit Messiah

Enter the pit and he'll make you his bitch

Enter the pit and he'll make you his bitch
