Eve said to Adam, honey, how bout a bite
He said, baby, sounds tempting
But you know it ain't right
But Eve was wearing one of those low-cut leaves
So they shook that apple right off of that tree

(Na, na, na, naaa, na, na)
(Na, na, na, naaa, na, na)

Ever since then it's been the battle of the sexes
In a game called love it's y verses x's
Sometimes they let us win, boys
So we feel like we beat em
But admit it fellas they could go undefeated

Cause it's a woman's world
Might as well face it
Yeah, they've got what we want
And we're willing to chase it
It's a woman's world
Boys, like it or not
Men buy the drinks
(Girls call the shots)

---- Instrumental Interlude ----

Us boys think we're smarter
I know that's a shocker
But once they start looking like
The a combination to their locker
All they gotta do is flash a school girl look
Next thing you know we're carrying their books

(Na, na, na, naaa, na, na)
(Na, na, na, naaa, na, na)

Once they get a little older
It's just more of the same
Just costs a little extra
If you wanna stay in the game
But don't think for one minute, boys
That we're in control

They know we can't live without em
That's their ace in the hole

Cause it's a woman's world
Might as well face it
Yeah, they've got what we want
And we're willing to chase it
It's a woman's world
Boys, like it or not
Men buy the drinks
(Girls call the shots)
Yeah

Yeah, it's a woman's world
Might as well face it
Yeah, they've got what we want
And we're willing to chase it
It's a woman's world
Boys, like it or not
Men buy the drinks
(Girls call the shots)

Yeah, it's a woman's world
(Na, na, na, naaa, na, na)
Whoo, it's a woman's world
(Na, na, na, naaa, na, na)
Yeah, it's a woman's world
(Na, na, na, naaa, na, na)
Men buy the drinks
(Girls call the shots)

Yeah, it's a woman's world
(Na, na, na, naaa, na, na)
Whoo, it's a woman's world
(Na, na, na, naaa, na, na)
Yeah, it's a woman's world
(Na, na, na, naaa, na, na)
Men buy the drinks
(Girls call the shots)

Yeah, it's a woman's world
(Na, na, na, naaa, na, na)
It's a woman's world
