Nothin' like a little thunder tellin' us good mornin'
Don't you just love that tin roof when it's stormin'
Makes me wanna lay here and just do whatever
Pull up the covers and hang out under the weather

It's cat and doggin'
Somethin' crazy
Girl, we oughta
Just keep it lazy
Baby, baby

I don't really care if the sun don't shine
It's a little more time for us to hide
From the outside world; you and me, girl,
We got all we need tangled up in sheets
So why not stay in the same spot
Until the rain stops

I think we'd better do what Mother Nature tells us
You know those windows, they ain't gonna fog themselves up
Ain't no blue sky on that horizon
But I bet you we can find us a silver linin'

Girl, the raindrops
They got their own little rythmn
So let's roll with them

I don't really care if the sun don't shine
It's a little more time for us to hide
From the outside world; you and me, girl,
We got all we need tangled up in sheets
So why not stay in the same spot
Until the rain stops

We can lay low
Breathe easy
And just go with the flow

Oh, baby, baby

I don't really care if the sun don't shine
It's a little more time for us to hide
From the outside world; you and me, girl,
We got all we need tangled up in sheets
So why not stay in the same spot
Oh, baby, why not stay in the same spot
Until the rain stops

Until the rain stop
Oh, baby, baby

Until the rain stops
