"Let Me Serve You"

Oh baby, don't you want a man like me
Oh baby, don't you want a man like me
Think about your future
Forget about your used to be

Just a little bit of rock
Just a taste or two of roll
I'll give you sweet inspiration
Till it satisfies your soul

Oh baby, don't you want a man like me
Let me serve you pretty baby
Serve you until you're free

Let me serve you in the morning
Let me serve you in the afternoon
I want to love you pretty mama
Underneath the silvery moon

Oh baby, don't you want a man like me
Let me serve you pretty baby
Think about what could be
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah.....
