"No Chemical Love"

It's just a little road, running by the river fall,
split soon in two ways, asking which is my way.
Beyond right and wrong, lines drawn by the road.
Can't erase the line of what you've gone, pleasure yours and mine.
No chemical love.

secret love inside, open your heart.
Let yourself in, let someone come.
Beyond right and wrong, lines drawn on your own.
Pleasure as much as you want, pleasure yours and mine.
No chemical love.

Long road ahead, riding on my own.
The split came my way, choose one, pleasure more.
Beyond right and wrong, lines drawn by the road.
Can't erase the line of what you've gone, pleasure yours and mine.
No chemical love.
