This expectation never surrenders, pretenders
The ever changing weather woes
You're all mistaken must I really explain
That there is always something secret to know
You keep them hidden under the covers, like lovers
What's in your closet down below?
We've all been guilty of playing the same game
But there are always little secrets to know

Get ready for a new sensation
I need to know is there a way (is there a way to build me up)
Is there a way to let you down?
And if I stay (and if I stay the runner up)
Does that mean you will be the talk of the town

I'm not the one to be the heart taker, or savior
My concentration wouldn't know
But when the fingers getting pointed by the strangers who blame you
I know the perfect place to go

Get ready for a new sensation
I need to know is there a way (is there a way to build me up)
Is there a way to let you down
And if I stay (and if I stay the runner up)
Does that mean you will be the talk of the town

We live and we learn
And that is all that we can do (all that we can do)
We live and we learn
And that is all (and that is all)

Is there a way (is there a way to build me up)
Is there a way to let you down
And if I stay (wa-oh) (And if I stay all bottled up)
Does that mean you will be the talk of the town
