

Dear Hunter, The "The Thief"

Shrouded
Criminal
An innovative mind

Shadowed
They're oblivious
With plans awry

Who can save us now?

Love seems barren when cash is king
Wealth here for the fleeting, what good will bring
More than I could ask from those who sleep
A crooked mind, an honest heart ancillary
They collide

Cheating
Innocence
I've got the time tonight
Tonight...

Love seems bare of meaning when cash is king
Wealth here for the bleeding, what good will bring me
More than I could ask from those who sleep
A crooked mind, an honest heart ancillary
They collide
