Summer's here
Now you're gone
I will remember your touch
So my dear, after all
Life still goes on without you
Chorus:
When I think about you
I still get weak
I get weary and I can't sleep
No matter what I try
It won't be you
From that moment
There's been no other
I've tried to find
Another lover
But I know it won't be you
One more time
One more year
We were so good
For so long
Wanting you
Wanting me
September love
Are you there?
Oh, when I think about you
I still get weak
I get weary and I can't sleep
No matter what I try
It won't be you
It won't be you
When I think about you
I still get weak
I get weary and I can't sleep
No matter what I try
It won't be you
From that moment
There's been no other
I've tried to find
Another lover
But I know it won't be you
No, It won't be you
It won't be you

It won't be you
No, No, It won't be you
It won't be you
